Señoritas featured in Sofrito For Your Soul

New York, NY- Señoritas feed their soul! For the first time ever, Sofrito For your Soul, an online magazine that promotes the evolution of Latino culture in the United States, is launching their idea of featuring a collection of Latino Greeks' poetry work on their website. An idea that ΣΛΥ/Señoritas Latinas Unidas Sorority, Inc. is proud to be a part of as the first Latino Greek organization to present its talented Hermanas' poetry work.

“This has been an idea that I have been toying with for quite some time and I am honored to have Sigma Lambda Upsilon be part of its launching,” says George Torres, poet, writer & creator of Sofrito For Your Soul Online Magazine and member of Phi Iota Alpha Fraternity, Inc.

The collection posted in www.sofritoforyoursoul.com includes pieces from J. Seary Wifebeater and Love Letter, Luz Burgos Canción Poderosa, Ysanet Batista Herstory, Jaletza Arias Mis Raíces, and Hannah Roth American Nightmare. For these Hermanas, poetry has been an integral part of their lives. Hermanas have performed in several locations including Nuyorican Poets Café, the Bowery Poetry Club, Cemí Underground, 5C Cultural Center, East Harlem Café, and many Universities.

Sigma Lambda Upsilon/Señoritas Latinas Unidas Sorority, Inc. was founded on December 1, 1987 at Binghamton University as an organization that would provide sisterhood and support while also promoting academic achievement, service to the community and cultural enrichment. Today, the sorority's purpose remains to unite women committed to seeking the political and social advancement of the under-represented populations.
