Sigma Lambda Upsilon Supports the Honorable Sotomayor

New York, NY- As the first Latina Supreme Court nominee Sonia Sotomayor faces Senate Judiciary Committee hearings this week; ΣΛΥ celebrates and supports her nomination.

ΣΛΥ strongly believes that Sotomayor is a true inspiration to many Latinas and families in search of the American Dream. Since her nomination, there has been nothing but pride, hope, and admiration within our Hermandad and amongst aspiring legal professionals for her nomination. With her impressive academic achievements, extensive professional experience, and an undefeated character, Sotomayor has defied the statistical odds of a Latina from the Bronx -- sending the message that “we too can do it ... si se puede.” Let us unite and help Sotomayor finish her journey in becoming the United States’ first Latina Supreme Court Justice. Let us make a difference today.

Take a stand and visit www.justiceforjusticesotomayor.org to sign a petition and/or write a letter to your senator requesting her confirmation. Sotomayor’s confirmation will shatter the biggest glass ceiling for Latinas in the legal profession.

Sigma Lambda Upsilon/Señoritas Latinas Unidas Sorority, Inc. was founded on December 1, 1987 at Binghamton University as an organization that would provide sisterhood and support while also promoting academic achievement, service to the community and cultural enrichment. Today, the sorority’s purpose remains to unite women committed to seeking the political and social advancement of the underrepresented populations.
